

Stevens Institute of Technology

Hoboken N.J.

Feb'y 26th 1887

Dear Sir:

While employed in the work of the U.S. Annual Assay
Commission ^{in Phila}, I requested Dr.
Jas P Kimball to allow me to purchase at the Phila mint $100
in one dollar ^{gold} pieces, for presents to nephews and nieces. At that time I did not find it convenient to do so.

I write to ask if I may yet be allowed to do so, & that you will have the kindness to inform me how ~~and~~ to whom

I shall make the cheque for amount ~~amount~~ payable -

I enclose a note from my friend Dr Timball referring to the matter -

With highest considerations
of regard I remain
Yours truly

Asphall Mayer

Prof. of Physics.

Hon Daniel M. Fox
Sept. Phila Mint.

260

Hoboken, N. J.
Feb. 20. 1888.

Alfred M. Mayer.

Wants 100 one Dollar
Gold pieces.

RG104 E-1 Box 150
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., 17th Feb, 1888.

Will Sup. L. Fed please deliver $100 in 1-dollar pieces on Asst. Alfred M. Mayer's remittance.
Asst. Mayer made the request
while serving on the Cassary

Commission

J. H. Nichols

Lincoln

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 150

[Abstract:] Wants 100 one dollar gold pieces.

Stevens Institute of Technology
Hoboken, N.J.
February 26, 1887

Dear Sir:

While employed in the work of the U.S. Annual Assay Commission in Phila. I requested Dr. J.P. Kimball to allow me to purchase at the Phila. mint $100 in one dollar gold pieces, for presents to nephews and nieces. At that time I did not find it convenient to do so.

I write to ask if I may yet be allowed to do so, & that you will have the kindness to inform me how to whom I shall make the cheque for amount payable.

I enclose a note from my friend Dr. Kimball referring to the matter.

With highest consideration of regard I remain

Yours truly,
Alfred M. Mayer
Prof. of Physics

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Supt. Phila. Mint

[Enclosed note:]

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
February 17, 1888

Will Supt. Fox please deliver $100 in 1-dollar pieces on Prof. Alfred M. Mayer's remittance. Prof. Mayer made the request while serving on the Assay Commission.

James P. Kimball
Director.